ATPL(A) Flight Planning Exam Information

To allow you more time to practice and refine the techniques needed in the AFPA exam, AFT does not have any pre booked exam sessions with ASPEQ for our Flight Planning courses and we encourage you to book and sit the exam when you are fully prepared. AFPA is the last scheduled subject in each of our full time courses giving students extra time for suitable revision to enhance speed and accuracy before sitting the CASA exam. The additional time should ensure all methods and processes are fully understood and careless errors eliminated, with the added benefit of reduced time pressure before attempting the CASA exam.

* APLA Exam day on Tuesday 10th June, 2025 due to Monday public holiday.  AFPA starts on Wednesday 11th June with Saturday 14th June as a scheduled in class day to make up from the APLA public holiday.
