CASA/PEX0 Exam Information

There is a considerable amount of information regarding the CASA PEX0 Exam system available on CASA's ATPL Exams Page.

7 Subject ATPL Examination

The ATPL examination is made up of seven separate examinations. These are:

- Flight Planning
- Navigation
- Performance and Loading
- Aerodynamics and Aircraft Systems
- Human Factors
- Meteorology
- Air Law

Individual Subject Credits

All ATPL exams are individual examinations. Candidates may choose to sit any number of papers at any particular sitting and be credited with a pass in each examination separately. When all subjects have been passed, a candidate is awarded a pass in the ATPL examination.

Examination Pre-Requisites

The pre-qualification requirements for the ATPL is a pass in the Australian CPL(H) theory examination or a CPL(H) Licence. You will be unable to book an examination unless you meet this requirement.

In particular, overseas students should note that they must hold a CASA CPL(H) or have a pass in all seven parts of the CASA CPL(H) theory exam to meet pre requisite qualifications for sitting CASA ATPL(H) PEX0 Exams. It is essential for overseas students to contact the CASA Flight Crew Examination and/or Licencing Sections to confirm they meet this requirement prior to booking their CASA ATPL examinations.

Perpetual Validity Period

The ATPL credit once issued, will remain valid indefinitely. This may be reviewed at a later date.

Two Year Time Frame

As of 1 September, 2014 a candidate has two years to pass all seven ATPL examinations to be awarded an ATPL theory pass. More information can be found on CASA's website under 'Re-training periods and exam windows'.

Pass Mark Required

The pass mark for each CASA examination is 70%, except for the Air Law where the pass mark is 80%.

Exam Fees

ASPEQ has a contract for the nationwide delivery of Flight Crew licensing examinations for the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA). ASPEQ is responsible for the booking and delivery of the examinations through a network of examination sites, while CASA is responsible for the provisions of the examinations through their PEX0 Exam System.

The fees for the examination service is split into two parts –

- CASA Examination Fee
- ASPEQ Examination Delivery Fee

Examination Venues

CASA PEX0 Exams can be sat at many CASA authorised exam centres Australia wide.

Booking your CASA/ASPEQ PEX0 Exams

All CASA Flight Crew Licencing Exams are to be booked through ASPEQ's website.

There are two parts to the ATPL Examination fees – a CASA fee and an ASPEQ fee.

The CASA examination fees are for the PEX0 Exam service provided by CASA via their web-based delivery system. The ASPEQ exam delivery fees are charged for each examination subject required. The fee structure is based around the length of the examination subject as this determines the amount of computer time used to deliver the subject. Please see CASA's website for current exam fee information for AFPH, APLH and AASH or AALW, AHUF, ANAV and AMET.

IMPORTANT NOTE: CASA and ASPEQ PEX0 fees are NOT included in our course fees for Full Time Ground School or Distance Learning Courses. If you are attending our Full Time Ground School Classes we have pre-booked CASA PEX0 Exam sessions for our students at the end of each subject. If requested, we can book your exam in one of these sessions for you on your first day in class and charge the exams fees to your account. Our pre booked sessions mean you do not need to book your own CASA PEX0 Exams for subjects you do in class with us. You must book your own CASA PEX0 Exams for any Distance Learning subjects you study.

Before booking any CASA PEX0 Exams candidates need to be sure of their eligibility and timing before making a booking.
